

June 3rd to September 16th, 2011
Friday Nights, 8pm

NEW FOR 2011!

Daring escapes, murdered pirates, ghost ships, buried treasure, tragic drownings, and headless phantoms: it is all in a night's work at Signal Hill National Historic Site. From the creator of the award-winning St. John's Haunted Hike comes an evening of ghost stories, historical tales and strange adventures. Join the dashing Lieutenant Ranslaer Schuyler by lamplight inside the historic Queen's Battery, and find out what happens on Newfoundland's most historic hill, after the lights go out.

$15 / $10 for kids 12 and under
(price includes admission to Signal Hill
National Historic Site Visitor Centre)

There is no performance on Canada Day, July 1st.

NOTES FOR SIGNAL HILL

Tickets must be purchased at least fifteen minutes before the show, from the Parks Canada Signal Hill Interpretation Centre, Signal Hill Road, St. John's. Haunted Hike passes not accepted. Free parking available on site. "Ghosts of Signal Hill" is an indoor, seated show, running approximately one hour. Some uphill walking required to get from the parking area to the performance space. Because of the historic architecture of Queen's Battery, the show is not wheelchair accessible.

THE ST. JOHN'S
HAUNTED HIKE

MAY 29th TO SEPTEMBER 15th, 2011

A PALTRY $10.00 PER SOUL!
$5 FOR KIDS 12 AND UNDER

NOTES FOR HAUNTED HIKERS

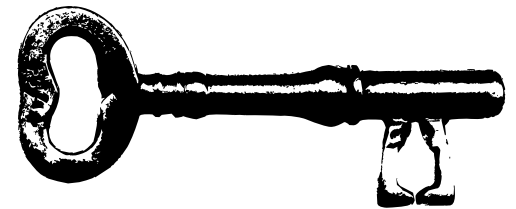

Both the "Sinners and Spirits" Tour and the "Ghosties and Ghoulies" Tour start on the stone steps outside the west entrance of the Anglican Cathedral of St. John the Baptist, located on Church Hill, close to the intersection of Church Hill and Gower Street.

There is no need to book or buy tickets in advance. Simply come along, and pay your guide at the start of the tour! On street parking is available nearby (do not leave valuables in your car).

The Haunted Hike lasts approximately an hour and a quarter. Both tours end back at the starting point.

Newfoundland weather can be hard to predict. The tour will go ahead with clear skies, drizzle, cold, and especially fog! Dress appropriately, wear comfortable walking shoes, and come with a willingness to believe.

The St. John's Haunted Hike can be booked for group tours and conferences. Check the website for further info.
